Section 2: Group Administration Details

Solely for purposes of determining whether an employer is a large or small employer, the employer is required to calculate the number of Full-Time Equivalents (FTE) it employed during the most recent rolling 12 months, and count each such FTE as one full-time employee. Refer to the employee definitions below.

Common Law Employees are eligible for health Insurance coverage. Common law employees are defined as anyone who performs services for an employer as long as the employer has financial and/or behavioral control for these employees. Leased employees, 1099 employees, and union employees are considered employees under this definition and should be included in the group size count.

Retirees are not "employees" and are not counted in group size.

Part-Time Employees are those who work less than 30 hours per week and are counted using the FTE counting method. To convert the number of part-time employees to an FTE number, the average monthly aggregate number of hours worked for part-time employees is divided by 120. Part-time hours are capped at 120 hours per employee, per month.

COBRA participants are not included in the FTE calculation for determining group size.

To assist you in calculating your group's part-time FTEs, visit irs.gov/affordable-care-act and select Employers, then Determining if an Employer is an Applicable Large Employer.

What is the total number of part-time and full-time employees during the most recent rolling 12 months?

(Used to determine Coordination of Benefits for members 65 and older)

What is the total number of FTE employees during the most recent rolling 12 months?

(Used to determine if Small or Large Group)

*The full-time equivalent employee counting method in 26 U.S. Code § 4980H(c)(2) must be utilized to determine group size. This method is the same calculation used to determine employer liability under the Shared Responsibility for Employers provisions of the Affordable Care Act (ACA) and Internal Revenue Code.

Section 4: Separate Entities with Multiple Tax ID Numbers

If any of the following conditions apply, tax documentation certifying that at least 80% common ownership may be required upon request, and MVP may, at its discretion, require the employer to submit documentation demonstrating common ownership under section 414. Acceptable tax forms are: (1) IRS Form 851 (Affiliations Schedule) with the names of all entities or (2) IRS Form 1065 (Schedule K-1).
